

Asim - Celebrating Leicester

Leicester gave me an education, but more importantly it gave me cricket. I believe you get out what you put in. Dad said to not stick with your own but mix with everyone. We were taught to contribute. Playing sport with different people of different ethnicities brings a certain joy you can't have if you stick to your own.