

Johannes - Barriers and challenges

I am very much aware of the fact that many people live below the bread line. And there are many people who are living in Leicester without proper paperwork, without sufficient English knowledge and therefore cannot defend themselves, even if they are heavily exploited, and sadly this happens. Problems like lack of knowledge of the English language and also some people I believe are socially hemmed in due to cultural situations.