

Aliya - Celebrating Leicester

Growing up, it was just great, learning from lots of different people. I love the multiculturalism, and I love the food, and I love the variety. And despite all of the things that have happened in Leicester, the good far outweighs the stuff that gets shown in the media. The things that are said about Leicester having ghetto places is not true. I think if you had a look at how much charitable work is going on in Leicester and Leicestershire, you will see how much goodness there is here and how much great work is going on here.
