

Ali - Lived religion and belief

Life for me up to that point was difficult. I had quite a lot of challenges and lots of tough life experiences and I found myself being introduced to God. I pushed back quite a lot on it and it took me a while. I ended up going to a religious community, just to go and see what was going on. I went there to disprove God to everyone and to show all my friends that they had joined some sort of weird faith-based cult and then ended up meeting Jesus in a massive way.