

Nilima - Lived religion and belief

For me, it means to do the right thing, rather than following all these blind rituals and worship. I do not like believing in blind beliefs.