

Dhara - Where is home?

I think home is where I feel like there are places where I can see temples, see churches, see mosques, see gurdwaras. Anywhere where I feel everybody is welcome. It doesn't have to be Leicester, as long as I can visibly see that there are no barriers because of a person's background.