

Chris - Where is home?

I really liked Leicester growing up. That is probably another reason why I did not want to move away for university, because I kind of knew the place, I was very familiar with it. So I just did not feel the need to move. But as I got older, the more I have realised that – maybe it is because I did not go away for university – but I think I do not actually want to be in Leicester for much longer. But I have also thought if I am going to move, I probably would not live in the UK. I went to Rio in December and I loved it. I thought it was such an amazing place to live as well. So I do not know where I will end up, but I would be disappointed if I am still in Leicester in a few years' time.
