

Graeme - Celebrating Leicester

If you want to get the best out of the city, you have to give to get back. You have to help the community. I think if you're prepared to put out for people, your neighbours, your friends, then it's a great place to live and I can't think of a thing to knock it.