

Prince - Lived religion and belief

There was a Catholic Church in Ghana that we used to go to quite a bit called Christ the King. When I came to the UK, we went to one called Saint Marie, which was in Sheffield. All my childhood I was brought up Christian. My grandma was not Catholic but my dad was, and I think my mum was not Catholic.