

Emma S. - Celebrating Leicester

In reality we have quite a lot in terms of the city centre events or on the outskirts. There's a massive variety of places and people and other things like museums and art galleries. It's not hard to find something to do in Leicester, whether it's a rainy day or a sunny day. There is so much to see and do.